A topographic map of the Valley River Mountains region, spanning the border between Georgia and North Carolina. The map features a red trail route with numbered markers (2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12) and a compass rose in the bottom right corner. The trail starts near a red pin on the left and ends near a green pin on the right. The map shows various geographical features, including mountains (Valley River Mountains, Braden Mountain, Tusquitee Mountain, Gumlog Mountain), creeks (Peachtree Creek, Fung Creek, Johnson Creek, Grayford Creek, Wingo Creek), and towns (Brasstown, Warne, Hayesville, Hiawasa). The state boundary between Georgia and North Carolina is clearly marked. A QR code is located in the bottom left corner of the map.
